CONFERENCE OF EDITORS OF LEARNED JOURNALS

The Conference of Editors of Learned Journals is an international voluntary association of editors of learned journals in the humanities, languages, literatures and related disciplines.

As an affiliate organization, CELJ meets annually at the conference of the Modern Language Association, offers members a central forum for discussion of problems common to learned journals through workshops and in the pages of Editors’ Notes, provides a mediation service, awards citations for excellence in editing, and makes liaison with editors of journals in other disciplines. Membership is $20 per year.

For further information, write to:
John Stasny, President, CELJ, English Department, West Virginia University, Morgantown, W.V. 26506

Free with every $2 subscription for 1988
The tone-setting inaugural issue of

THE SOUTH ATLANTIC QUARTERLY

From the new editorial board at Duke University: JANE TOMPKINS, West of Everything; FRANK LENTRICCHIA, Anatomy of a Jar; SUSAN WILLIS, Gender as Commodity; STANLEY EJSM, Change; BARBARA HERRNSTEIN SMITH, Value/Evaluation; LEE PATTERTON, “No man his reason herde”: Peasant Consciousness, Chaucer's Miller, and the Structure of the Canterbury Tales; A. LEIGH DENNEY, Of Dialogues and Historians; ANNABEL PATTERSON, The Very Name of the Game: Theories of Order and Disorder; FREDRIC JAMESON, On Habits of the Heart plus an introductory preface by Oliver Ferguson linking the “new” SAQ to the journal’s 83-year tradition of cultural criticism. In addition to the inaugural issue, you will receive four issues in 1988, including a special issue on Third World Literature and Culture, edited by Fredric Jameson.

The fine price: This offer applies to individual subscribers only; the annual subscription price for libraries is $20. Please pay the $2 by check or by VISA/MasterCard. We need the card name, number and expiration date, plus your signature.

Duke University Press 6697 College Station, Durham, NC 27708

SHAKESPEARE QUARTERLY

Barbara A. Mowat, Editor

THE WORLD'S MOST COMPREHENSIVE AND UP-TO-DATE SHAKESPEARE PERIODICAL AND BIBLIOGRAPHY

Shakespeare Quarterly is published in one volume of five issues per year: Four regular issues (Spring, Summer, Autumn, Winter) plus one supplement, “The World Shakespeare Bibliography” (the world’s only all-inclusive bibliography on Shakespeare).

Each volume offers:
Wide-ranging ARTICLES on Shakespeare’s life, work, and influence;
Scholarly NOTES on interpretative problems in the poems and plays;
Coverage of current ISSUES affecting Shakespeare scholarship, performance, and the teaching of Shakespeare;
Illustrated THEATRE REVIEWS of significant productions in over 30 countries;
BOOK REVIEWS to keep you current with the latest trends in Shakespeare scholarship and criticism.

To enrich your knowledge and revitalize your excitement, bring Shakespeare Quarterly into your home, office, and classroom!

SUBSCRIPTIONS: $30 individuals, $40 institution; Foreign add $5 ORDER FROM: Folger Shakespeare Library, 201 E. Capitol Street, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20003.
The Journal of Modern History

"... this journal constantly keeps its readers astir with the developments which are taking place in modern history..."

Douglas Johnson, Times Literary Supplement, February 7, 1966

Editors: Keith M. Baker, John W. Boyer, and Julius Kiviniemi

Published quarterly by The University of Chicago Press, Division of Media, P.O. Box 37000, Chicago, IL 60637. One-year subscription: $3.50. This Journal is included in the subscription. Additional $1.50 postage if mailed outside the USA.

EXPLORNEW...ENDURE...EVLQW
The New Dakota Quarterly alternates general issues with special issues on topics such as New Dakota Studies, Women's Studies, Rural America: Its Values and Threats to Them, and Collaboration in Race, Class, and Gender. NDQ also publishes a fresh approach to its field through new studies and seeks to publish essays grounded in solid scholarship but not pandering. Its features and poetry have no limitations in subject or form but are of high quality and are from writers throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Two of its essays published last year were chosen by Elizabeth Workshop Robert Art

Robert W. Lewis, Editor
North Dakota State University

NDQ

ABSTRACTS OF ENGLISH STUDIES

A quarterly journal devoted to abstracting periodicals relating to English Literature, and containing an average of 750 abstracts of per issue. Issued March, June, September, and December.

Subscriptions:
- Institutions: $50.00 / $40.00 U.S.
- Individuals: $25.00 / $20.00 U.S.

Order from:
University of Calgary Press
1300 Library Tower
University of Calgary
2500 University Drive, N.W.
Calgary, Alberta, Canada T2N 1N4
Back volumes are available from University Microfilms International.

The LITERARY REVIEW

AN INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF CONTEMPORARY WRITING

One of the leading journals of contemporary writing in English and new work from both professional and educational writers.

PUBLISHED QUARTERLY BY

Patriot Seaboard Press
Madison, NJ 07940 USA

Subscriptions: $12.00 (US) outside US $3.00 (US) single issues

IELS

STUDIES IN ENGLISH LITERATURE, 1500-1900

Winter: English Renaissance: Donald Cheney, reviewer.

Journals of the College of William and Mary. All literature

Summer: Shakespearean review.

Autumn: Century of death: David Riche, reviewer.

Sel. E.R. Canham, reviewer.

PUBLICATIONS OF THE SOUTHERN LITERATURE STUDIES ASSOCIATION

The South Atlantic Review, the official journal of the South Atlantic Modern Language Association, is published four times a year. No solicitation, published essay pertaining to all facets of the modern languages and literatures, will be eligible for the SAMLAW Prize for an Outstanding Article in the SARM in the amount of $300.00. Only SAMLA members may submit essays for consideration. Annual dues, including a subscription to the SARM, are $20.00 - $25.00.

FRONTIERS
A Journal of Women Studies
FRONTIERS, a feminist journal, publishes substantive and accessible articles, essays, short fiction, interviews, literary reviews, photography, and poetry that appeal to both academic and community audiences. Although issues often have a cluster of articles addressing a specific theme, FRONTIERS always welcomes unsolicited contributions on any topic of interest and encourages interdisciplinary and collaborative approaches as well as creative work.

FRONTIERS
Women Studies Program
Campus Box 325
University of Colorado at Boulder
Boulder, CO 80309-0325

Further Information:

The South Atlantic Review
9481
Studies in Medievalism

Studies in Medievalism, the only journal on this subject, is published by The Conference of Editors of Learned Journals through which much of the material in the field has been published. The editors are the editors of the conference, and the material is reviewed and accepted by them.

Recent issues of Studies in Medievalism and Dante in the Modern World and Modern Arthurian Literature. Forthcoming in 1986 are Medievalism in France 1500-1790, Medievalism in Architecture and Design, Medievalism: Inklings and Others, and Medievalism in Germany.

The subscription for each of these four issues is currently $10 for individuals, $16 for institutions, foreign rates slightly higher, subscription is raised 1 January 1988. Back subscriptions polikahet 31 December 1983, will be honored at the old rate. For the Newsletter, free on request, with further information, write to:
The Editor, Studies in Medievalism
Hope College, Holland, Michigan 49423, USA.

The Journal of Mind and Behavior

The Journal of Mind and Behavior (1984) is a scholarly journal devoted to the study of psychology, behavior, and personality. The editors are particularly interested in novels that use the scientific methods of psychology and personality. The editors are particularly interested in novels that use the scientific methods of psychology and personality.

The Canadian Journal of International Studies

Articles and Book Reviews on International Relations, published twice yearly, in Canada and available for subscription from the International Relations Department, P.O. Box 302, Vinedo, New York, New York 10011.

The Canadian Journal of International Studies

Articles and Book Reviews on International Relations, published twice yearly, in Canada and available for subscription from the International Relations Department, P.O. Box 302, Vinedo, New York, New York 10011.

The Review of English Studies

DIckens Quarterly

A scholarly journal devoted to the study of the life and times of Charles Dickens. The quarterly journal of the Dickens Society of America welcomes submissions on any aspect of Dickens life and works and on the first six novels, whose 150th anniversary the journal marks with a special issue in the series from Pickwick to Bleak House.

DICKENS QUARTERLY

A scholarly journal devoted to the study of the life and times of Charles Dickens. The quarterly journal of the Dickens Society of America welcomes submissions on any aspect of Dickens life and works and on the first six novels, whose 150th anniversary the journal marks with a special issue in the series from Pickwick to Bleak House.

The Discourse Analysis Research Group (DAR Group)

Newsletter

The Discourse Analysis Research Group (DAR Group) is a group of researchers interested in the study of language and communication. The newsletter is published quarterly and includes articles on discourse analysis, as well as reports on ongoing research and projects.

English Studies in Canada

Quarterly journal of the Association of Canadian University Teachers of English, Canada's largest association of university teachers of English, English Studies in Canada publishes articles on literature, language, and culture, as well as book reviews and other scholarly work.
Conference of Editors of Learned Journals.

The Georgia Review

America's leading quarterly of arts & letters, featuring a rich blend of interdisciplinary essays, poetry, fiction, graphics, and book reviews.

"The Georgia Review...are masterpieces of literary, editorial, and graphic excellence. With differing emphasis and in different ways, the Georgia Review seems to stretch to our all.

The best of them all is the amazing Georgia Review: modestly priced, superbly conceived and edited.

-The Christian Science Monitor

Annual sub. rate: $12 (9 issues) $24 (12 issues)
University of Georgia, Athens, GA 30602 USA

An indispensable companion to students of the Renaissance

RENAISSANCE QUARTERLY
Published by
The Renaissance Society of America

The interdisciplinary articles, critical surveys of recent literature, and thirty to thirty-five book reviews in each issue of the journal cover the most important scholarly developments in Renaissance studies. They are written by authorities in the disciplines of history, the vernacular and Neo-Latin literatures, philosophy, art, music, religion, science, and law.

Editors: Margaret L. King and Bridget Geller Lyons
Associate editors: Colin Elkins, Wallace T. MacCaffrey, and James V. Mirkot
The Renaissance Society of America, 1161 Amsterdam Avenue, New York, New York 10027 U.S.A. Annual subscriptions (which includes membership in the Society) is $35; students and retired, $15.

Gestus

the Electronic Journal of Brechtian
Studies

Have something to say about Brecht?
We're interested.
Or perhaps you'd care to join us...

The Brecht Society of America
59 E. New Street
Dover, DE 18618

THE SOUTHERN QUARTERLY
A Journal of the Arts in the South

Special Issues
Southern Women Playwrights
Edited by Milly S. Barranger
Spring 1987 ($3.50)
Contemporary Theatre in the South
Edited by Warren C. Robertson
Summer 1987 ($3.50)
The Arts in the South
Fall 1987 ($5)

Available upon publication (prepaid) from
The Southern Quarterly
University of Southern Mississippi
Southern Station, Box 5978
Hattiesburg, MS 39406-5978

An indispensable companion to students of the Renaissance

RENAISSANCE QUARTERLY
Published by
The Renaissance Society of America

The interdisciplinary articles, critical surveys of recent literature, and thirty to thirty-five book reviews in each issue of the journal cover the most important scholarly developments in Renaissance studies. They are written by authorities in the disciplines of history, the vernacular and Neo-Latin literatures, philosophy, art, music, religion, science, and law.

Editors: Margaret L. King and Bridget Geller Lyons
Associate editors: Colin Elkins, Wallace T. MacCaffrey, and James V. Mirkot
The Renaissance Society of America, 1161 Amsterdam Avenue, New York, New York 10027 U.S.A. Annual subscriptions (which includes membership in the Society) is $35; students and retired, $15.

JOURNAL OF MODERN LITERATURE

Editor: MORTON P. LEVITT

Devoted to scholarly, critical, and cross-cultural studies, JML is the journal of record for Modern and Post-Modern literature. We have now expanded our coverage to include world literatures.

The Annual Review Issue reviews the major books and lists articles, dissertations, special numbers, and general information on modern literature published the previous year.

YEARLY SUBSCRIPTIONS
$16/Individuals
$20/Institutions

INDIVIDUAL ISSUES
$5/General/Special
$10/Annual Review

CONRADIANA
A Journal of Joseph Conrad Studies

Devoted to all aspects and periods of the life and work of Joseph Conrad. The journal does not lay to a single critical or theoretical perspective, but publishes an eclectic mix ranging from source study and new critical readings to the latest in deconstruction and new historicism. Now in its twentieth volume, Conradiana is published in winter, spring, and autumn.

Subscriptions are $12.00 for individuals, $18.00 for institutions.

THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY
Theory and Interpretation

Offer a forum for research in all aspects of the rich cultural, political, and social life of Europe and the United States from 1660 to 1800. The journal publishes critical and scholarly articles on this period from many disciplines, including literature, history, fine arts, science, history of ideas, and popular culture. The editors profess no one approach or ideology. By publishing traditional, innovative, and theoretically self-conscious articles, The Eighteenth Century attempts to raise questions, not assume answers. TEC, now in its twenty-ninth volume, is issued in three numbers (winter, spring, and autumn) per year.

Subscriptions are $10.00 for individuals, $18.00 for institutions.

HELIOS
A Journal Devoted to Critical and Methodological Studies of Classical Culture, Literature, and Society

Publishes articles and in-depth book reviews on topics in literary criticism, comparative literature, women in antiquity, and the social and cultural history of the Greek-Roman world. The articles reflect a diverse range of contemporary methodological approaches, such as anthropological, deconstructive, feminist, reader-response, and sociological. Published twice annually (spring and autumn), Helios is in its twelfth volume.

Subscriptions are $10.00 to individuals and $18.00 to institutions.

Include $3.00 postage (institutions, $4.00) for mailing outside North America.

Texas Tech University Press
Lubbock, Texas 79409-1037
USA
Subscribers to the scholarly quarterly, College Composition and Communication, you will receive a subscription to College Composition and Communication. This quarterly is a forum for teachers of writing in two- and four-year colleges. It presents articles dealing with rhetoric, the theory, practice, history, and politics of composition and its teaching at all college levels; research into the processes and teaching of writing; the preparation of writing teachers; and the relationship of literature and language studies to composition and its teaching. It also includes book reviews and a "Interchange" section.

The Conference on College Composition and Communication is the constituent organization of the National Council of Teachers of English that focuses on composition and its teaching. Their main publication, College Composition and Communication, has an international stature as a refereed journal producing quality contributions to the field of composition and rhetoric.

With your membership in CCCC you also receive:
• free subscriptions to three publications from the National Council of Teachers of English:
  - the U.S. representative in the International Federation for the Teaching of English
  - discounts of 15% to 20% on registration fees at the Annual Conventions of CCCC, as well as
  - the NCTE Annual Convention, which includes an international forum as well as
  - regular member mailings, including updates about NCTE's recent publications
  - free copies of policy and position statements

For more information write:
Fullscheidt Department, CCCC-457, NCTE, 1111 Kenyon Road, Urbana, IL 61801;
(217) 328-3870

LEGACY
A Journal of Nineteenth-Century Romantic Women Writers
Spurred by the current interest in women's culture and sexuality, LEGACY is a refereed quarterly devoted to the lives and literary creativity of women in the Romantic period. Articles, book reviews, and book lists are international in scope and primarily include the work of women from the United States, England, and France. Within this broad focus, though, the journal is interested in less well-known as well as well-known authors. The editors welcome both substantial essays and shorter, more focused articles.

LEGACY is committed to the complete inclusion of women and men in the study of women's culture. We welcome articles and book reviews that focus on women and men in the same text or on the interrelationships between the sexes.

LEGACY will publish regularly throughout the year, and it will have a circulation of 1000 copies with an address list of 2000. The cost per issue is $10.00, the cost for 1 year is $30.00, and the cost for 2 years is $55.00.

Southwest Review
"A periodical that will clearly be read. Plainly...dedicated to being literary in the high old sense"—Cynthia Ozick
"Very impressive...contents and format both attractive and distinguished"—Guy Davenport

South Central Review
Problem of French Literature from the late Renaissance to the early Enlightenment
CONTINUUM
Editor: David Lee Rubin; Associate Editor: John D. Lyons
302 Cabell Hall, University of Virginia, Charlottesville 22901
Published by AMS Press, 56 East 13th Street, New York, N.Y. 10003

CRITICAL TEXTS
A Review of Theory and Criticism
Critical Texts is an interdisciplinay journal devoted to oppositional criticism. We publish interviews, translations, and articles on theoretical and methodological questions in the humanities as well as reviews of important new work.
602 Philosophy Hall, Department of English and Comparative Literature, Columbia University, New York, N.Y. 10027
$7/Individuals $12/Institutions $20/Foreign

Nineteenth Century Theatre
A Semiannual Journal of Theatre Studies
NCTF (formerly Nineteenth Century Theatre Research) covers a broad range of western-theater, national and regional. NCTF publishes articles, reviews, and an abstracts of recent dissertations and in the field of theater.
1018 Charles St., New York, N.Y. 10019

American Speech
A Quarterly of Linguistic Usage
Edited by R.R. Butler, Duke University
A journal dedicated to the study of the English language in North America. Available on the American Associative Dictionary, only $20.00 (U.S.) worldwide includes text monograph series PADS.

VICTORIAN PERIODICALS REVIEW
English Department, Beauty Hall, University of Iowa, Iowa City, Iowa 52242
PUBLICATIONS REVIEW
North Texas State University, Box 7800 • Denton, Texas 76203

new fiction and poetry by Australian authors
• interviews • reviews • notes • published twice yearly by the Australian Association of Antipodes

Antipodes
A North American Journal of Australian Literature
Address inquiries to 100 Sixth Avenue, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11217 USA

HOFSTRA UNIVERSITY
Hempstead, New York 11550
The HUC Press in Literary Studies is pleased to announce the publication of "Refractions: The Nineteenth Century in Literature," the forthcoming YEAR 1990 THEATRE volume of the PUBLICATIONS REVIEW

For information about the conference, please contact: Conference Director, HU Press, Hofstra University, Hempstead, New York 11550.
Conference of Editors of Learned Journals.

Medical Humanities Review
Provides substantial, timely reviews of books in the medical humanities. Published two times a year.

Edited by Ronald Carson and Thomas Murray
From the first two issues:

Vol. 1, No. 1
Why Death Loves to be Remembered
Three New Books on Imperiled Newborns
Richard Selzer's Taking the World In for Repairs
Alexander Capron on (Almost) Everything You Ever Wanted to Know About Informed Consent

Subscriptions: $20 individuals; $40 institutions; outside U.S., add $2
Institute for the Medical Humanities
The University of Texas Medical Branch
Galveston, Texas 77550.

PROTEUS
A Journal of Ideas
1987 (located on Maintaining School Discipline in a Permissive Society in the Spring, and our Fall issue will celebrate the U.S. Constitution Bicentennial, highlighted by an article by the Honorable Justice Arthur J. Goldberg.

For further information contact:
Terry D. Hemenway, Managing Editor
Office of Public Relations
Shipensburg University
Shipensburg, PA 17257
(717) 532-1201

THE JOURNAL OF THE SOCIETY
FOR THE STUDY OF MELUS
THE MULTI-ETHNIC LITERATURE
OF THE UNITED STATES

"MELUS is unique in that it covers the universal, the American and the international in a manner which integrates all aspects of the field which makes up ethnic studies. What we emphasize is, first of all, the uses of the literature in ethnic studies and, second, the need for a modern American literature."—M. Choice

Individual Subscription: $30.00 (institutions)
Institutional Subscription: $45.00 (institutions)

MELUS is published quarterly

MELUS
Department of English
272 Bartlett Hall
University of Massachusetts
Amherst, MA 01003
(413) 545-3166

AL-ARABIYYA: JOURNAL OF THE ARABIC ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA, An annual journal of scholarly and pedagogical articles and reviews of Arabic language, literature and linguistics.

Subscriptions: $20/year
Al-`Arabiyah, Department of JANE
256 Cortland Hall, 1441 Minikah Road
The Ohio State University
Columbus, Ohio 43210, USA

seminar
A Journal of Germanic Studies
Seminar: A Journal of Germanic Studies is published quarterly for the Canadian Association of University Teachers of German. Manuscripts in English, French, and German and books for review should be submitted to the editor, Patrick F. Neale, Department of German, Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario, Canada K7L 3N6. Subscriptions, at $20.00 (Canadian) per year, should be sent to the University of Toronto Press, General Department, 55 Sparks Street, Toronto, Canada M5T 2C6.

1987
Annual subscription: $30 US individuals
$50 US institutions

Robert S. Fuhrmann, Editor
Department of Germanic Languages
University of Arizona
Tucson, Arizona 85721

IÉIRE — IRISH STUDIES: A JOURNAL OF IRISH STUDIES

TLS SPECIAL BOOK NUMBERS
FOR 1988

February
12
19
26
March
25
April
1
8
29
May
13
27
June
3
10

Obscenity and the Arts
Paperbacks
Spring Export
London Book Fair
Children's Books I
Art History
Reference Books
Short Stories
University Presses
Women's Studies
International Publishing

July
August
September
October
November

Psychology
History
Religion
Autumn Export
U.S. Politics
Portugal

FEATURING 1988 JOURNALS

March
June
August
November

4
10
5
18